The Study Centennial Yearbook

2015-2016

A Message From the Head of School

Dear Class of 2016,

The Class of 2016 represents the culmination of our year of Centennial celebration. What an exceptional group of students you are, rightfully "bookbending" the year as one of the Centennial classes. As I reflect upon your accomplishments, I am particularly impressed with the fact that although you represent the smallest class in number, you have certainly risen to all challenges, meeting the needs and achieving the goals of a class that would normally have twice as many students.

You are an academically strong class, very devoted to modeling the vision and mission of The Study. You have consistently reached for your highest potential, while at the same time, remembering how important it is to work as a team. I know that this has not been without very hard work and critical thought.

As individuals, you are so very unique. Your sense of individuality is as diverse as your personal passions; yet, you seem to have understood, well, that real accomplishment lies in working together as a team.

As you move forward, it is certain that you will look back on this year with a sense of accomplishment. It gives me great pride that you have, with great aplomb, achieved so much together, during this unforgettable celebration of The Study's 100th Anniversary.

May the next phase of your educational path enrich you as much as your contributions have enriched our school.

With best wishes,

Mrs. Nancy Lewis Sweer, Head of School

A Message From the Deputy Head of School

What an exciting year to be at The Study, celebrating our Centennial with the entire community- it has been a year like no other!

As Graduates of 2016, you have had the opportunity to participate in and play a key role in many of our Centennial events. The sense of community and family that you have felt throughout your years at The Study, and most especially this year, is an important feeling that you will carry forward with you into the future. Please know that you can always come "home" and will always be an important part of the legacy of The Study.

"We leave something of ourselves behind when we leave a place, we stay there, even though we go back. And there are things in us that we can find again only by going back there."

Pascal Mercier

We wish you all the best in your future endeavours and very much look forward to hearing about all your future achievements.

Antonia Zannis, Deputy Head of School

A Message From the Senior School Director

This beautiful yearbook offers a snapshot of the 2016-17 school year, commemorating the highlights of the year and recognizing your outstanding achievements. I hope that you will cherish yours, and look back fondly as you remember the wonderful events, the fantastic accomplishments, and the incredible friendships you have built over the year.

To the graduates of 2016, I wish you courage and joy as you move on with your journeys. I encourage you to find your individual voices and follow your dreams. No matter where your adventures may take you, never lose your spirit of curiosity, and always remember that nothing is impossible. As JK Rowling once said, "We do not need magic to change the world, we carry all the power we need inside ourselves already: we have the power to imagine better."

Ms. Patricia Briand, Senior School Director

A Message From the Junior School Director

Il y a un siècle, Margaret Gascoigne fondait The Study. Cent ans plus tard, l'école est plus vivante que jamais. Nous nous assurons que les élèves ici apprennent toujours les choses qui sont vraiment importantes. Mais celles-ci ont beaucoup évolué!

Les manières de faire se sont certainement transformées, tout comme la société a évolué. Les filles occuperont des emplois qui n'existent pas encore, d'où l'importance de les former pour qu'elles sachent faire face au changement. Pendant mes années à The Study, j'ai vu des filles accroître leurs compétences dans divers domaines comme, par exemple, développer leur esprit critique ou parler devant un groupe. Elles sont certainement bien outillées pour l'avenir!

Je souhaite à toutes les filles, et particulièrement aux finissantes de 2016, une carrière enrichissante et motivante.

Mme Sylvie Lafleur, Directrice du primaire

The Study's Song

La chanson du Study

Music by Belinda Takahashi
Lyrics by a collective group of volunteers

We're the sisters of the Study,
Standing side by side.
Rooted in tradition,
Yet we're aiming for the sky.
Like the petals of the trillium,
We flourish and we grow,

Le sourire dans les yeux
Et la flamme ardente au coeur.
Le lien qui nous rassemble
Nourrit notre âme de bonheur.
Hier, enfant, demain, femmes,
Femmes vraiment formidables!

The Yearbook Committee

Centennial Yearbook 2015-2016

This yearbook has been made to put together the memories The Study has accumulated throughout its Centennial year. Its purpose is to serve as a record for the years to come, so that others may look back and remember what great things that went on at our exceptional school.

The Centennial Yearbook 2015-2016 was created by the student committee and myself. Thank you to the girls who devoted a part of their extra-curricular time to attending weekly meetings and designing pages. A heartfelt thank-you must be also given to Ms. Papini for her indispensable mentorship.

Enjoy reading through these pages.

Sincerely,
Aitana Juristo Andrade, '16

Head Girl

Being my school's centennial Head Girl has been an experience of a lifetime. There were in fact ups and downs, and my sanity would have been long gone if it weren't for the Student Council (Ms Bosnakyan, you were pretty helpful too). The simple fact of wearing my Head Girl pin made me want to stand up a little straighter in hopes of making my school proud. It's a tough position and I will forever be grateful for the life lessons it has taught me. Finally, I want to wish the best of luck to my friend, The Study's Head Girl 2016-2017; Alex Kouri. I am so proud of you, and I am confident that The Study is entering its next hundred years in good hands.

Chloe Maas

Sub-Head Girl

Being on Student Council proved to be one of the most fun and rewarding tasks. I couldn't have asked for a better group of girls to plan, organize and procrastinate with. Although our meetings mostly consisted of getting distracted and talking about water guns and/or pirates, I'm so proud of the work that we did this year.

Thank you very much to my fellow Student Council members and to Ms. Bosnakyan for keeping us on the right track. My Mondays definitely won't be the same without our meetings anymore, but I'm grateful for the experience and knowledge that I acquire throughout our time together.

Victoria Sebag

Sports Captain

Had you asked me back in Grade 7 if I thought I would have a position on Student Council, I probably would've answered saying, "Not possible!" Going up and talking in front of the entire school at every assembly? Nuh-uh. I didn't think I would have it in me. I am very glad to see that I was wrong. It has been such an honour to be the Sports Captain for The Study's Centennial Year. I wish nothing but the best for those who are lucky enough to earn the position, because being on Student Council made my final year at The Study all the more special.

Katerina Petropoulos

Council

Entertainment Prefect

Taking on the role of Entertainment Prefect did not only leave me with amazing and unforgettable memories, but has also rewarded me with life lessons. As first impressions go, the school first saw me in a bathrobe, dancing my heart out...It can be said that I took my role on Student Council very seriously, being known as the girl who wore an extremely warm lion costume at assembly. In all honestly, stressful times were common. From preparing last minute skits, to organizing large events. However, good times were not hard to come by, from inside jokes on Monday meetings to organizing awkward grade 7 and 8 dance! I am truly going to miss my time at The Study, which would not have been as memorable if I had not been a part of the Student Council. I have grown into a more confident, organized and capable woman thanks to this opportunity. I'm going to truly miss all the other members of Student Council. Last but not least, thank you so much Ms. Bosnakyan for great laughs and for being on all of our cases.

Sarah Iacobacci

Elementary School Prefect

Every year since Kindergarten I would sit at assemblies and think: "I want to be on Student Council". I knew, from day one, that I wanted to be involved in our school community. This year, at the finish line of my high school career, I'm so glad I've always been that eager child- because the experience of being Elementary School Prefect has made my graduating year extremely special. As a proud lifer, the moments I've spent the Elementary School have been very rewarding and, in a way, it feels like I've always been able to give back to the institution that helped raise me. I've truly enjoyed preparing and presenting Elementary School Updates at assemblies. It has also been a pleasure to work in tandem with Ms. Kasirer, Mme Line and the Class of 2027 to create the charm of "Kindergarten Corner"- thank you for helping bring my vision to reality! I would also like to thank, Chloë, Katerina, Victoria, Sarah P. and Sarah I. for making our meetings so entertaining! Thank you as well to Ms. Bosnakyan for helping guide us so expertly. Alex Brisebois, good luck next year- you're going to be a great role model for the little ones!

Samantha Levy

Treasurer

I cannot believe how fast the year has gone. I still feel as though I just got elected into the Student Council with the other 5 girls. Student Council was by far one of the greatest I have had at The Study. Chloë, Victoria, Katerina, Samantha and Sarah, you helped make my experience memorable. Every single one of you is so hardworking and was dedicated to making this school year the best one yet. Even if it was the night before or the morning of, we always found a way to get things done. I would like to thank Ms. Bosnakyan for being the best advisor ever and putting up with our craziness. Thank you to all the The Study girls who have made this year an unforgettable one. I'm going to miss you all! To next year's Council, have fun and good luck! And finally, to the Student Council 2015-2016, I am so proud of us and I love you so much.

Your treasurer,
Sarah Petrecca

Committee

Art Heads

This year, as Art Heads, we worked to promote the arts at the school. To do this we created an Arts Blog where we posted articles to show how Study girls are involved in the arts. We are very proud of this new project, and hope that next year's art captains, Michaela and Joséphine, will continue and improve our work.

We want to thank the members of the art committee, who were responsible for gathering the information necessary for the blog and writing up articles for us, among other tasks. Without them our job would've been much harder. We hope that many of you will continue to be involved in the committee next year.

And finally, to Ms. Van Frank, our art teacher and mentor: thank you for your support, guidance and dedication.

Aitana Juristo-Andrade and Julia Luciani (both '16)

Girls for the Cure Committee

The first Girls for the Cure event happened over 21 years ago, and since it then it has only increased in success. The Study is one of the participants of the event, and us four girls were proud to represent our school in 2015.

Thank you to every Study student, teacher, staff and parent that contributed to the $143, 000 dollars that were raised last year. Your efforts will have made an impact on the funding of breast cancer and other women-related cancers research.

Thank you, also, to Ms. Lewis, who guided us during the weeks of arduous preparation that preceded Girls for the Cure. Your help was indispensable.

Kaela Alexander-Young, Aitana Juristo-Andrade, Julia Luciani and Grade Jast (all '16)

Bazaar Organizing Committee

We can't believe that we were able to make this event as great as it was. After putting in many hours of hard work to ensure that success of this year's Bazaar, it was great to see the entire fundraiser come together! Thanks to this experience we learnt how to manage our time and organize ourselves better. None of the success of the Bazaar would have been possible without Ms. Briand, Ms. Liogas, the rest of gr. 11 as well as the entire Study community!

Kaela Alexander-Young, Tiffany Assaly, Julia Luciani (all '16)

Heads

Grad Committee

Even though it was hard to decide what color of flowers we wanted to get, we managed to pull the event together. Our grad was a successful evening thanks to our hard work. None of this would have been possible without the help of Ms. Liogas, as well as the money that Kaela, our Tuck head, raised.

Kaela Alexander-Young, Tiffany Assaly, Grace Jast, Sarah Jacobacci and Julia Luciani, (all '16)

Tuck Head

I've never been so proud to be called Tuck head. I am considered to be "the best Tuck Head ever". However, I didn't just earn the title; the job was not easy. From making almost weekly trips to the store to lugging the goods all the way down the stairs at 7:30am: I pulled through. I could not have done it without Ms. Liogas, all high school students, especially the eager grades 7 and 8, my supportive grade 11 class and my mom. Being Tuck head has given me the opportunity to be responsible for something other than myself. It has taught me to keep going even when you go bankrupt, because there's always a way out, everyone's willing to buy candy.

Peace love, and "do you got money?"

Kaela Alexander-Young, '16

Alumnae Prefect

Being alumnae prefect was one of the most interesting positions I've taken on at The Study. Attending SOGA meetings and giving my opinion on various ideas was incredibly gratifying, mostly because I understand that I was taking part in something truly important. The willingness of SOGA to hear the voices of current students in order to better their initiatives is remarkable to me. I would like to give a huge thank you to Ms. Edwards and the members of SOGA for including me in your meetings and for giving me responsibilities as they gave me a chance to grow and learn. I am now very excited to be sitting with you as an Old Girl soon!

Victoria Sebag, '16

Community Service Head

The community service program at The Study starts in Grade 7. Every student needs to fulfill a minimum of 20 hours per year until graduation. In this centennial year, a lot was achieved; every grade in the school had to do a community service project. For example, Grade 10 went to the Kensington Place Retirement Home to teach seniors about technology and social media. Gabriela Carrara ('17), as next year's Community Service Head, you will have a lot of fun making presentations, organizing the Community Service fair and being an ambassador for all volunteer work around the school. Have fun!

DELTA BETA

It has been a very fun year! We have really enjoyed being your house officials; it has been a blast. It's amazing how all of us have come together and work so well as team. Thanks to every one of you for making my last year at The Study a very special one. As well, thank you all for being such an energetic and spirited group of girls, which is what makes our house the best!! Good luck to all of the house officials for next year and I'm sure Delta Beta will continue growing strong. DELTA BETAS DYNAMITE :)

We love you, <3

KAPPA RHO

Being your house officials this year has truly been an amazing experience! We had a great time planning new and fun activities for you girls. Although we did not have many House Days this year, you made everyone one of them amazing with all your spirit and crazy accessories. We are very proud of you all for showing your pride and excitement for Kappa Rho. You never failed to encourage one another with cheers and support. The spirit that you all bring is truly what makes Kappa Rho the best house!

Good luck next year! Go Kappa Rho Go!

MU GAMMA

Well the time has come to end the year off. We had such a great year, with lots of very spirited girls! It was an honour to be your house officials, and we are so grateful for this opportunity. I think we will remain one of the most spirited houses in the school, so keep that because that is all that matters at the end of the day! I wish the new Force great luck next year in keeping the spirit in our house the same!

Love,

Kaela Alexander-Young (2004-2016)

Twelve years, that's how long it took me to realize that The Study is my second home. Thank you to all the teachers and friends that have contributed to my present and future success. I've made indescribable friendships and crazy memories that will last a lifetime. Big Sean once said: "I'm a hit this night up like it's my last", well I don't only have one night, I have like 16-17 weeks left, but they're nonetheless my very last, and I'm extremely grateful that I get to spend it with all twelve of you. "You're my right hand, you're my go to", If any of you girls need me, just hit me up, I'll be there. I wish nothing but the best of all of you.

Love you all, mouah!
- Kaela

Tiffany Assaly (2004-2016)

I can't believe that I have attended this school for the past 12 years. Now it's all come to an end. I have made great friends and I'll never forget them. We've had ups and downs but we made it out in one piece. I love these girls so much! We have been through so much together and I don't know what I will do without them next year. Every time I think of them it reminds me of the quote, "Everything happens for a reason". We were meant to meet at this point in our lives, and our time together has been unforgettable. It's sad knowing next year I won't be going to school with the same 11 girls everyday. High school might be ending, but life is just about to get good for all of us. Until we meet again.- Tiff

Sarah Iacobacci (2004-2016)

12 years. I can still remember being welcomed by my fellow Canadians on my first day of kindergarten, having just moved from London, England. One would think that by now, I would be tired from walking up Braeside, a.k.a "Mount Everest" for 12 years, and the truth is... YES I AM! However, through snow and more snow, I walked up that hill...because I loved The Study. The fact that I love The Study, makes it harder for me to summarize my time here in ONLY 120 words, and it is the reason for why the Yearbook Committee is chasing me down for handing this in so late; sorry Aitana. For months now, I have been excited to leave a school that has nurtured me and pushed me to dream big and work hard. Even though I might not necessarily miss the uniform, I will definitely miss my 11 sisters. I love you all so much! "Toodles"-Sharpay Evans

Class of 2016

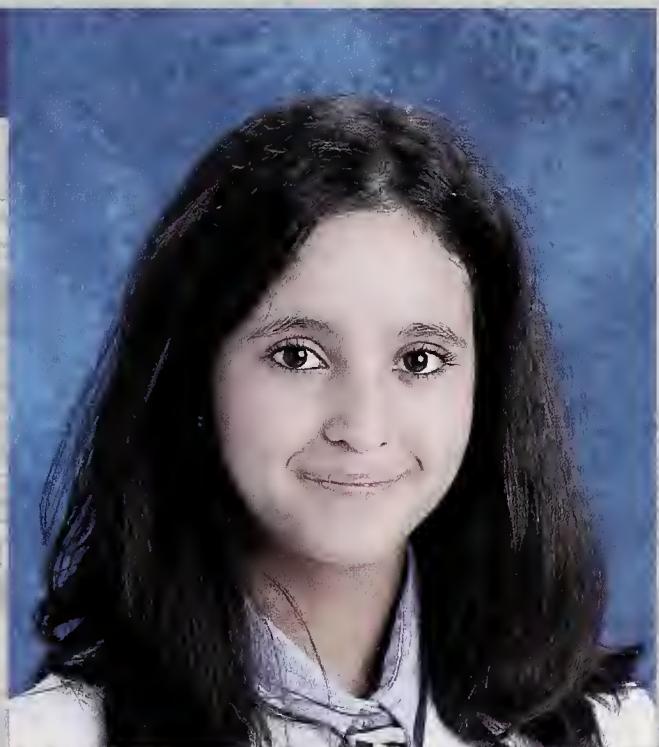

Grace Jast (2004-2016)

I've been at The Study for about 75% of my life... that's a long time! I wouldn't have been able to get through it without support and encouragement from my family, friends, teachers and staff. I would like to thank The Study for making my elementary and high school experiences memorable. Although I am very excited to graduate, I am truly going to miss everyone and everything that comes with going to this school. All 11 of you girls have made me laugh so hard and I thank you for that because laughing is one of my stress relievers. I'm really going to miss you all and it will not be the same without you next year. Best of luck to all of you in the future fam!! – G Race <3

Aitana Juristo-Andrade (2006-2016)

Thank you to the inspiring and incredibly dedicated teachers who taught me throughout my years at The Study. I am ambitious and determined because of you. Thank you to my mom, my dad and my sister Melissa for the unconditional love you give me every day. I am strong and compassionate because of you. To my classmates; each of you has marked me and changed me in some way, and for that I am also thankful. I wish you the best, humbugs.

Samantha Levy (2003-2016)

The Study has been a central part of my life since I was four years old, and I want to thank every dedicated staff member who has helped shape me into the young woman I am today. I would not be half as confident and empowered without the team of adults who work tirelessly for our personal and academic development. To my Study sisters from the Class of 2016, thank you for making this journey so special! My graduating year has been filled with fantastic experiences – from co-directing the Grade 7/8 Play, to being Elementary School Prefect on Student Council, to participating in our Nicaragua trip, to portraying Miss Hannigan in the senior production of Annie, there has never been a dull moment! I'm so thankful for all the opportunities The Study has given me, and I couldn't have asked for a more meaningful Centennial and graduating year. It's sad to leave home, but I know The Study's doors will always be open.

Graduating

Melissa Lu (2004-2016)

These past twelve years at The Study have flown by too quickly. It is here that I learnt so much from some of the most passionate and caring teachers, shared great moments of laughter and tears, been given so many diverse opportunities. To everyone who has made my time at The Study so remarkable and enriching, thank you from the bottom of my heart. I would also like to thank my family who has supported me every step of the way! Without you, nothing would have been possible! Finally, congratulations to the graduating class of 2016 and good luck in all your future endeavours. It is an honour for me to be graduating with you during this incredible centennial year. I'll miss you all!

Kisses, Melissa Lu

Julia Luciani (2011-2016)

Unlike Kanye who said, “I still think I am the greatest”, I know that I am the greatest. You’re probably thinking that my grade is lucky to have someone like me; that’s very true. But I am also extremely lucky to have my eleven sisters. I could never have asked for a better group of girls to share my high school journey with. I strongly believe that I left my mark at The Study even though there were a few bumps along the way. On a final note, every girl is a queen, and should be able to wear their crown every day no matter what anyone says.

p.s. Don’t do anything I wouldn’t do (which isn’t much)
Julia (Shredder)

Chloë Maas (2011-2016)

When I arrived at The Study in 2011, I was tall, scrawny, and completely lost, both metaphorically (I had no clue what I wanted to do in life) and literally (I recall somehow ending up near the grade 2 classes. I’m still not 100% sure how I got there). Today, high school diploma in hand, I remain tall, scrawny and a little bit lost, but this school had helped me to understand that there is nothing wrong with any of those things.

Thanks, The Study, I owe you (big time).

Class of 2016

Sarah Petrecca (2009-2016)

Jim Morrison once said, "A friend is someone who gives you total freedom to be yourself." Over the past seven years, I have gotten to know eleven of the most special, intelligent and hilarious girls in the world. Eleven girls who have changed me into who I am today. Thank you for bringing out my true colors and appreciating me for who I am - I know that I couldn't have done it without you. Thank you to all of my teachers; you have helped me reach my full potential. I am definitely going to miss your support and dedication. VS, TA, KAY, KP, CM, SI and JL, WE MADE IT!

Love, Sarah

Katerina Petropoulos (2011-2016)

2700 hours spent commuting to and from school, 4.1 gallons worth of tears, and 19 680 litres of air used for the sake of ranting, all in the five years I've been at The Study. While my time at The Study has been a fun ride, it's also been an incredibly difficult one. One that I most definitely would not have gotten through had it not been for the eleven girls I shared my time here with. I'm excited to finally move on to the next chapter of my life, but I will miss all of our angry talks about feminism, our plans to take down Berger Blanc (and frame Chloe for it), and, strangely, our relentless screaming about everything.

With that being said, I quote Sheldon J. Plankton: "Goodbye, everyone! I'll remember you all in therapy."

Victoria Sebag (2003-2016)

If we do the math (which I've grown to dislike throughout the years), I've been at The Study for three quarters of my life. If we do some additional math, assuming I've spent 180, 7 hour days here for 12 years, I've spent 15 120 hours with the girls who have also been here since Kindergarten; that's 8550 more hours than I've spent with my 9 year old brother, assuming I see him 2-3 hours a day every day. My message is clear: 1) math class has served me well 2) I've spent a lot of time at The Study.

I can't believe how time has passed. I've seen my classmates grow into incredible women. Our grade has been reduced to a mere 12, but big things come in small packages; I couldn't be more grateful for the group of girls I've shared my Study experience with.

A word of advice: High school is tough, but you're tougher. "When life gets you down do you wanna know what you've gotta do? Just keep swimming!"

Splash & Dash

October 3rd, 2015

Splash & Dash is a fun-filled day of run-swim-run relay races. It raises money for Sarah's Fun, founded in 2001. Since its inception Sarah's Fund has raised over $6 million to support the needs of the Hematology-Oncology division at The Montreal Children's Hospital. This year Splash & Dash raised $161,000 thanks to The Study girls and staff.

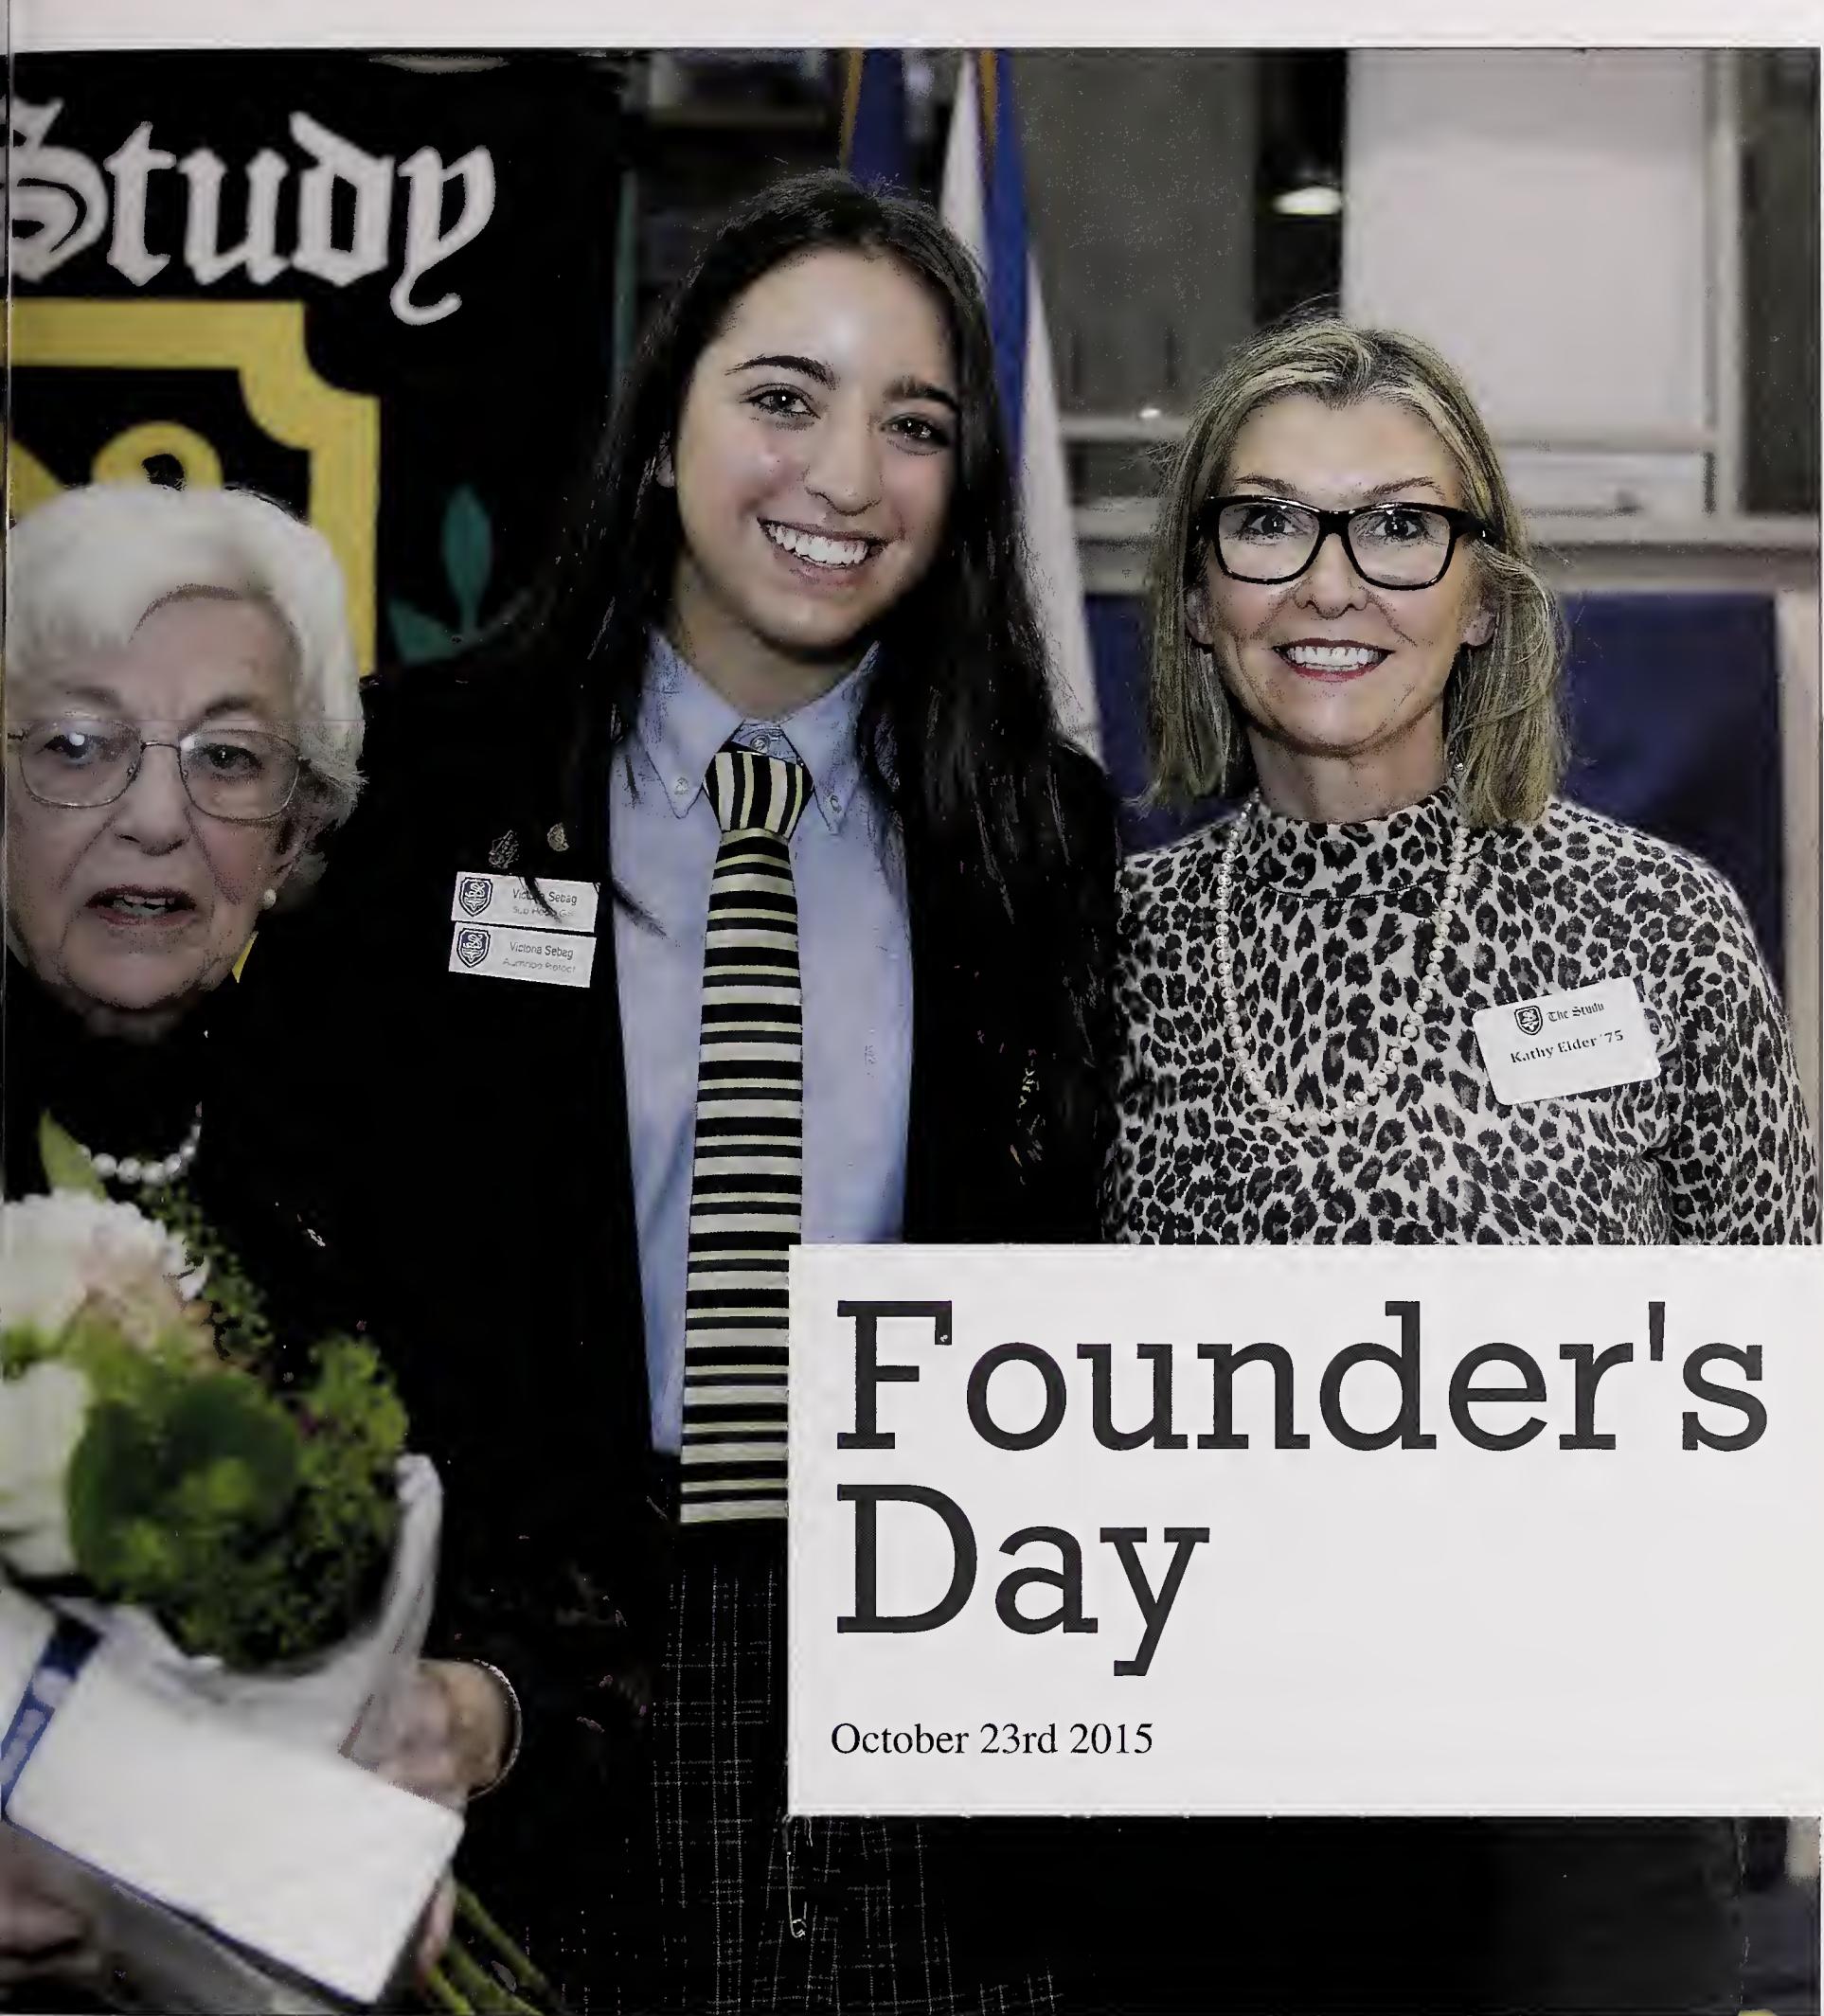

The grade 5 class enjoyed Splash & Dash!

Nicaragua Community Service Trip

February 28th to March 10th 2016

Every two years, a group of Study girls visit the Dirià Institute, our sister school in rural Nicaragua. We bring donations and teach the students English, as well as get to know their culture. In addition to this, we go on sightseeing tours in the beautiful "Land of Lakes and Volcanos"!

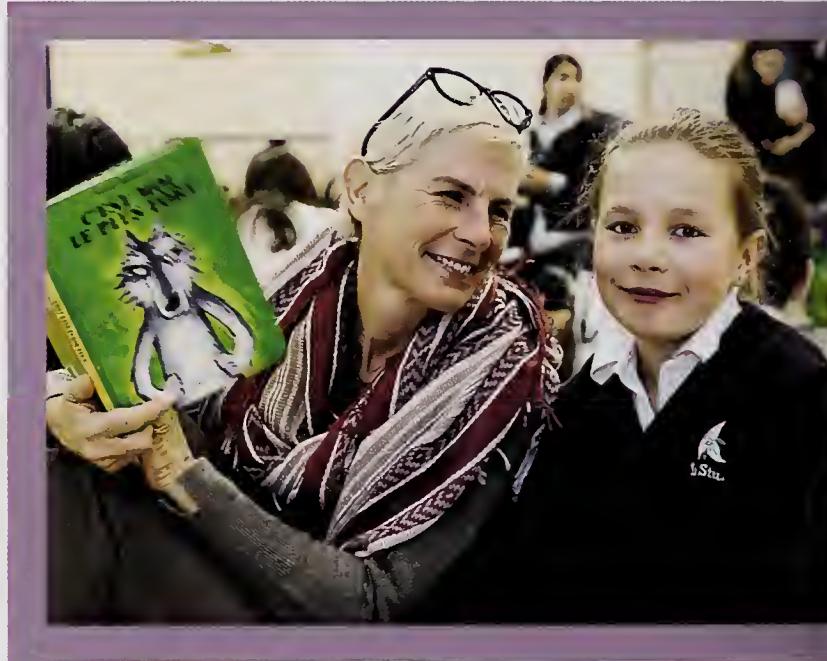

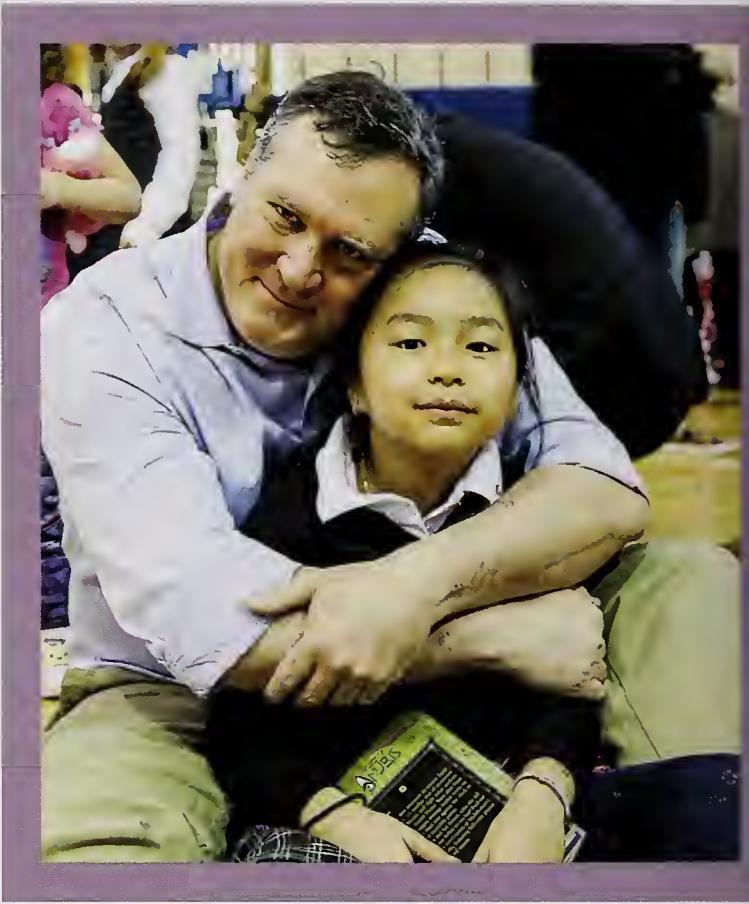

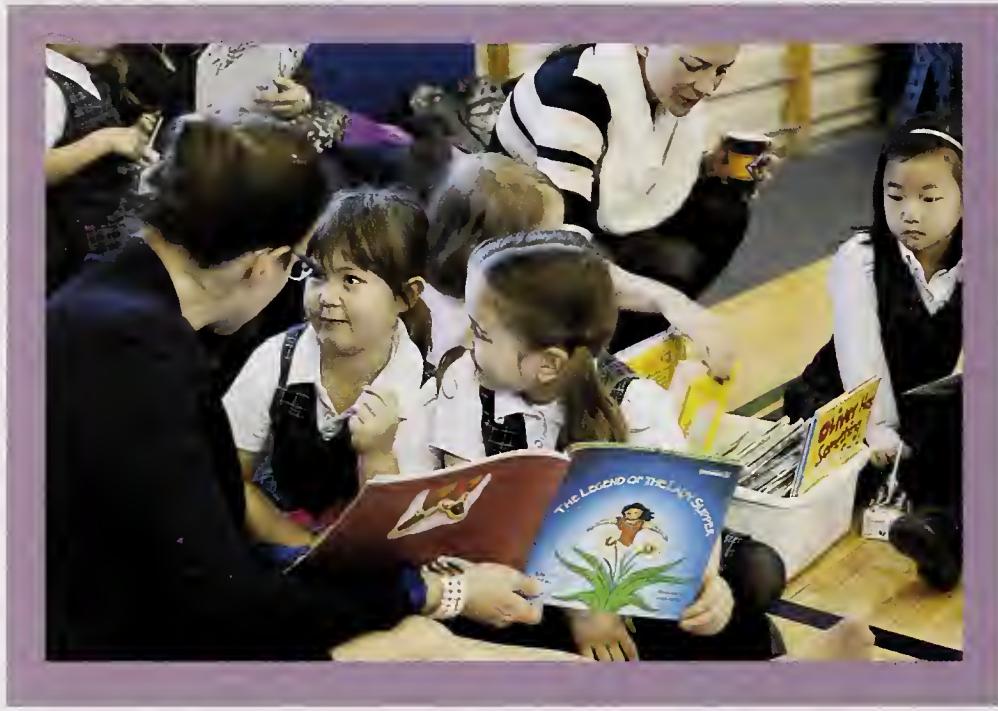

A close-up photograph of a flowering branch with clusters of small, bell-shaped purple flowers hanging from dark green stems. In the foreground, a lush field of bright green grass is visible. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green.
